Title: Credit Repair Lawyers of America
Description: We have been fixing credit reports since 2008. Credit reports can be damaged not only by identity theft, but by creditors who do not record payments timely, report incorrect information such accounts that are closed as still open and late and charge offs when an account is settled. There are many ways that your credit report can get damaged without you knowing about it. You don't have to suffer in silence anymore. We are here to help you at no out of pocket charge. Illinois consumers who think they don't need credit repair are in for a surprise when they learn how frequent credit report errors occur. In fact, about 80% of credit reports contain inaccuracies of some kind.
